The Hausdorff dimension of spectral measure for the graph Laplacian is shown exactly in terms of an intermittency function. The intermittency function can be estimated by using one-dimensional discrete Schroedinger operator method.